1. Introduction:

This Conflict of Interest Management Policy (“Policy”) is drafted in terms of section 3A (2) (a) of the General Code of Conduct for Authorised Financial Services Providers and Representatives, 2003 (“General Code of Conduct”). This policy is promulgated under the Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act 37 of 2002 (“FAIS Act”). It requires every Financial Services Provider (“FSP”) to adopt, implement and maintain a Conflict of Interest Management Policy.

As the Telesure Investment Holding (TIH) group’s subsidiaries are authorised FSP’s, they are obliged to comply with the prescribed Conflict of Interest provisions of the FAIS Act. This Policy gives effect to section 3A (2) (a) of the General Code of Conduct. TIH is obliged to render unbiased and fair financial services to Clients. Accordingly, all employees of TIH who are involved in the business of TIH are obliged to conduct themselves in a professional manner and in line with this Policy. All employees should also take all reasonable steps to avoid any business activities and/or practices that may create Conflicts of Interest between TIH, Employee interests, and the interests of Clients. If it is not possible to avoid a Conflict of Interest, TIH will take all reasonable steps to mitigate the impact as well as appropriately disclosing any such Conflict of Interest to Clients.

In considering potential Conflicts of Interest, TIH considers the structure and business activities of TIH; and/or any proposed new business activities of TIH.

8. What is allowed under the management of Conflict of Interest

- 8.1. An FSP or its representatives may only receive or offer the following:
- 8.1.1. Commission authorised under the Long-Term and Short-Term Insurance Acts as well as the Medical Schemes Act.
 - 8.1.2. Fees authorised under the Long-Term and Short-Term Insurance Acts as well as the Medical Schemes Act.
 - 8.1.3.  - 8.1.5. Subject to any other law, an immaterial financial interest.
 - 8.1.6. A financial interest for which a consideration, fair value or remuneration that is reasonably commensurate to the value of the financial interest is paid by the provider or Representative at the time of receipt.
 - 8.1.7. An FSP/representative can spend up to a maximum of R1000. 00, per calendar year, per FSP and/or a representative. One is obliged to maintain a proper record of any financial interest provided in the form of an Interest Register. The register should contain the value and reasons why the financial interest was given or received and kept in a format that is easily assessable. The duly designated personnel who maintains the Interest register is responsible for updating and keeping the Interest Register safe. Representative(s) who want to access the interest register must request it from the representative register administrator.
- 8.2. An FSP or its representatives may only receive or offer the financial interests referred to in clause 9.1.2, 9.1.3 and 9.1.4 if –

- 8.2.1. those financial interests are reasonably commensurate with the service being rendered taking into account the nature of the service and the resources, skills and competencies reasonably required to perform it;
 - 8.2.2. the payment of those financial interests does not result in the FSP or representative being remunerated more than once for performing a similar service;
 - 8.2.3. any actual or potential conflicts between the interests of clients and the interests of the person receiving the financial interests are effectively mitigated; and
 - 8.2.4. the payment of those financial interests does not impede the delivery of fair outcomes to clients.
- 8.3. The purpose of business gifts and entertainment in commercial settings is to create goodwill and nurture sound working relationships, rather than to gain any unfair advantage with customers and or TIH clients. Reasonable business entertainment and customer gifts of immaterial financial interest are permitted, including promotional events, provided that the offer is consistent with usual business practice and cannot be viewed as a bribe or a payoff and certainly cannot be in violation of this Policy. The TIH Fraud and Ethics Policy should at all times be considered in relation to gifts and entertainment and underpins this principle.
- 8.4. Any other forms of commissions, incentives and remuneration must be presented to the Compliance Department for approval prior to its implementation.

9. Sign-on Bonus

- 9.1. TIH does not engage in the practice of offering FSPs and representatives sign-on bonuses as an incentive to render financial services on its behalf. The FAIS Act prohibits the offering of a sign-on bonus to any person other than to a new entrant (a person who has never been authorised as an FSP or appointed as a representative by any FSP).

10. Consequences of non-compliance with this Policy

- 10.1. TIH employees are obliged to report every suspected or actual transgression of this Policy to TIH through the disclosure process. All employees should avoid any situation that may create or appear to create a situation which could be deemed a Conflict of Interest as, once there is a Conflict of Interest, TIH employees may find it difficult to perform their duties and/or carry on with their work responsibilities impartially.

- 10.2. A violation of this Policy is a serious matter that could cause harm to TIH and could result in disadvantaging certain TIH clients.
- 10.3. Any employee, of TIH, who fails to comply with this Policy or avoids compliance through any means, will be regarded as having breached his/her employment contract. This will potentially render the individual liable to the appropriate disciplinary proceedings in terms of the FAIS Act and TIH's Disciplinary Code which may result in the termination of their employment with TIH.

11. Amendments to this Policy:

- 11.1. The Governing body has adopted this Policy as well as the policies relating to the identified categories of potential Conflicts of Interest. The Governing body, without prior notice to or having been in consultation or reaching agreement with any FSP or its representative, may amend this Policy. Material amendments that are made to this Policy shall be made available to all employees on the relevant platforms.

- 12.2. Compliance with all rules, regulations and legislation is the individual responsibility of each employee. Each employee must accept personal responsibility for behaving correctly and in accordance with this Policy. Likewise, each employee is obliged to avoid or prevent any actions that are contrary to the content of this Policy and which could cause any harm to TIH as a result.
- 12.3. Set out below are various ways in which TIH can identify any Conflict of Interest:
 - use of TIH's declaration of interest register will provide information on Conflict of Interest;
 - monitoring the Conflict of Interest declaration register, annually;
 - regular monitoring of commissions, incentives and fees that are paid /received by business units and independent brokerages;

- monitoring of gifts/financial interest offered or received by TIH on a continual basis.
- 12.4. The above is not an exhaustive list of how to identify the existence of a Conflict of Interest. Annexure A lists practical examples of the application of Conflict of Interest.
- 12.5. If you're unsure what constitutes a conflict of interest, an email can be sent to the Compliance team at compliance@tihsa.co.za for assistance and guidance.

13. Disclosure

- 13.1. TIH must make appropriate disclosures to third parties including clients, as part of its arrangement to manage conflicts of interest. It is acknowledged that while disclosure alone will often not be enough, disclosure must be treated as an integral part of managing conflicts of interest. TIH is therefore committed to ensure that clients are adequately informed about any conflicts of interest that may affect the provision of financial services to them where applicable.
- 13.2. A clearly identified conflict of interest will not necessarily cause the provision of financial advice to a client to be significantly compromised, it should nonetheless be disclosed to the client. The client must be afforded the opportunity to decide for him/herself whether the conflict of interest is significant and to what extent he/she will rely on the advice or intermediary service.
- 13.3. On the discovery and identification of a conflict of interest, and the subsequent determination of its unavoidability, the following disclosure processes will be implemented on behalf of the client:
- 13.4. Full disclosure of the actual or potential conflict of interest must be made to the client at the earliest reasonable opportunity.
- The disclosure must be made before or during the rendering of financial services. In any other cases, the disclosure must be made at any time that allows the client reasonable time to assess its effect.
 - The disclosure must be formulated in such a way as to be considered prominent, specific and meaningful to the client.
 - The disclosure must be made in such a way as to allow the client to make an informed decision as to whether to continue with the financial services.
 - The disclosure must indicate the nature of the relationship or arrangement with a 3rd party that gives rise to the conflict of interest.

- The disclosure must indicate whether the conflict of interest is based on a financial and/or ownership interest.
- The disclosure must indicate any ownership interest held with a product supplier in accordance with section 4(1)(d) of the General Code of Conduct.
- Where the disclosure is provided orally, the disclosure must be confirmed in writing within 30 days of such said disclosure.
- The written disclosure must be communicated by hardcopy or any appropriate electronic medium that is accurately and readily reducible to written or printed form.
- The written confirmation of the disclosure must be provided by means of standard forms or format, in a clear and readable print size, spacing and format.
- The reasons for the conflict of interest's unavoidability must be made available to the client on request.

14. Process, procedures and internal controls aimed at facilitating compliance:

- 14.1. All Employees must know and understand the Conflict of Interest Management Policy as well as the policies relating to the identified categories of potential conflicts of interests. Appropriate training will be provided to all Employees on a periodic basis.
- 14.2. The TIH Learning and Development Team shall be responsible for the training of all employees within the various business units of TIH on this Conflict of Interest Management Policy. They will be supported, where necessary, by TIH's Compliance Department. The relevant legislative provisions will be highlighted during training, ad hoc communications and educational material will be used to highlight the awareness and the importance of compliance with this Policy.
- 14.3. TIH has adopted a Fraud and Ethics policy which should be read in conjunction with this policy.
- 14.4. The Forensic function manages a Conflict of Interest mailbox on an ongoing basis. The mailbox is to manage potential conflict of interest notifications. The notification is to be sent through a form which is available from the Forensic function and attached as annexure B. The notification is to be sent to coi@tihsa.co.za.
- 14.5. In addition senior management will be subjected to an annual Conflict of Interest questionnaire which must be completed.

15. Measures aimed at mitigating Conflict of Interest

- 15.1. TIH employees should avoid engaging in activities which will result in a Conflict of Interest. One must not use improper means to; for example, obtain business from a particular client or third party.
- 15.2. If TIH employees realise that there is a potential or actual Conflict of Interest, the employee must, timeously and fully disclose any such potential or actual existence of a conflict to TIH by reporting it to their immediate superior and submit a potential conflict of interest notification to coi@tihsa.co.za . This will enable TIH to decide whether to engage with the employee/transgressor in question;
- 15.3. TIH employees, who are faced by a Conflict of Interest situation which is unavoidable, must ensure that the necessary disclosures are made to the client and that the client's best interests are prioritised.
- 15.4. Should any employee not be certain about an intended transaction of theirs being a possible transgression of this Policy, the employee must approach their immediate superior and send an email to the Compliance team at compliance@tihsa.co.za for assistance.
- 15.5. TIH may not offer any financial interest to its representatives:
 - 15.5.1. That is determined with reference to the quantity of business secured for TIH without also giving due regard to the delivery of fair outcomes for clients;
 - 15.5.1.1. For purposes of clause 16.5.1 TIH must be able to demonstrate that the determination of and the entitlement to the financial interest takes into account measurable indicators relating to the-
 - achievement of minimum service level standards in respect of clients;
 - delivery of fair outcomes for clients;
 - quality of the representative's compliance with the Act;as agreed between TIH and the representative, and sufficient weight is attached to such indicators to materially mitigate the risk of the representative giving preference to the quantity of business secured for TIH over the fair treatment of clients.
 - 15.5.2. For giving preference to a specific product supplier, where a representative may recommend more than one product supplier to client or
 - 15.5.3. For giving preference to a specific product of a product supplier, where a representative may recommend more than one product supplier to a client.

- 15.6. The above aims to ensure that, clients are treated fairly and are fully protected from undue and uncompetitive behaviour by product suppliers and /or their representatives. The ultimate objective is to ensure that the best possible financial services are always rendered to clients.
- 15.7. In order to ensure that quality is not compromised in favour of quantity, our Service Quality Assurance Department (“SQA”) monitors calls of representatives on a risk-based approach, daily. The SQA findings are shared with the managers, supervisors and coaches.
- 15.8. Depending on the severity of non-compliance on the part of representatives, the following actions can be taken:
- Written warning;
 - Training can be recommended;
 - Coaching;
 - Dismissal; or
 - Penalty in the form of a deduction of commission earned by the Representative.
- 15.9. In situations where it is “impossible” to avoid a Conflict of Interest, business unit manager(s) must, when called upon to do so, advance reasons as to why they failed to adhere to this Policy and to take measures to mitigate any Conflict of Interest.
- 15.10. Please see attached, a document marked Annexure “C” which illustrates the identification of Conflict of Interest.

16. Publication and reporting

- 16.1. This Policy is available on the TIH website and the website of the various subsidiaries. The Compliance department will report on accessibility, implementation, monitoring and compliance of this Policy.

All queries regarding this Policy can be directed to the Compliance Department.

Annexure “A”

Practical examples on the application of potential conflicts of interest:

1. A representative who is given a gift voucher, cooler bag and holiday voucher from an FSP or broker, the value aggregating over R1000 in one calendar year.
2. A Broker who is given a gift voucher, cooler bag and holiday voucher from TIH, the value aggregating over R1000 in one calendar year.
3. A dealer which provides financial services for TIH being paid maximum commission and given gifts over R1000 in a calendar year.
4. Incentives being run at Brokers which promotes number sales volumes.
5. Representatives are told to increase sales for the day and do so by not following the script and selling funeral policies to clients who requested a life policy.
6. When clients call in for a comparative quote, the representative sells the product of the provider who will be giving the highest commission for the sale although the product is the most expensive and doesn't suit the needs of the client.

The above is a contravention of the Conflict of Interest Management Policy and must be avoided. The interest received must be disclosed on the interest register.
